Meeting called to order at 1:15 PM, 3 August 2016 by Arnaud Trouvé presiding as Chair of the ESSCI Executive Committee.

Informal lunch meeting organized to discuss major topics- upcoming University of Maryland meeting (Arnaud Trouvé) and proposed Penn St meeting (Jackie O'Connor).

Final award selection from 2016 Princeton meeting for Markstein Best Paper and Fenimore Best Student Presentation will be discussed later in day by Paul (Awards Chair), Arnaud, Michael, and Jackie.

Report on University of Maryland meeting (Arnaud)

Arnaud provided meeting information. The baseline configuration for the budget assumes 420 participants; the internal UMD sponsorship is estimated to be $12k; additional external sponsors are being queried. A NSF proposal (Michael Gollner) has been submitted for NSF student support.

For the 2018 meeting different possible university venues were mentioned, including Cornell (may be considered later since Perrine is on sabbatical) and Penn St (see below).

Presentation for Penn St. to host 2018 ECCSI Spring Technical meeting (Jackie O'Connor)

Jackie O'Connor (and Yuan Xuan, Dan Haworth) would be organizers for the Penn St meeting in 2018. Cost was estimated at $20k level with $7k for the banquet and another $10k for student support. Nearby airports are State College (SCE) and Harrisburg (MDT).

15 hotels, including Nittany Lion Inn And Penn Stater, were determined to be within commute distance to the meeting venue at the Days Inn. The conference hotel (Days Inn) rate would be $109/night.

The meeting dates would be March 4-7 (spring break), May 6-9 (after Finals) and banquet could be held at the Nittany Lion Inn.

Other topics: There was some discussion of complaints about requiring student presenters having to have PI's present. Also, there was discussion of a mission statement and reluctance from CI to become part of the climate change debate.
